As Charming as Girls Who Wear Them Are These Youthful Costumes of 1920 BY 20,000,000 TO

Not in years has the debutante been the inspiration of such plans as this season, and these are indeed the bud's busy days, and if the clothes designed for her are charming they are no more so than the wearer. Above are three costumes designed for her which bear out both sides of the contention. One is a youthful and attractive week end frock of Fan-Ta-St, in which the brilliant wool embroidery is effectively used as trimming.

Another extremely youthful style shown above will be eagerly bought for the summer wardrobe. It is a combination of white Moon-Glo crepe and 1920 Fan-Ta-Si, artistically embroidered in red. The hat is of straw, combined with Fan-Ta-Si.

An effective "Co-Ed" sports model of crepe de chine is shown, consisting of smartly pleated skirt in white with contrasting overblouse of orchid. The embroidery is done in silk and beads.
